I. Course Description

This course presents a comparative study of world religions, including but not limited to Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism.

II. Prerequisites

None

III. Course Purpose

Philosophy 1304 allows students to learn the facts about each of the world's major religions, engage in meaningful discussions, and reach their own conclusions about each worldview and its validity. Such knowledge will better equip students to understand themselves and the roles they play in addressing the human condition across cultures.

IV. Required Resources for the Course

Michael Molloy. Experiencing the World's Religions. 8th ed. New York: McGraw-Hill Education, 2021. ISBN: 978-1260253511.

V. Core Curriculum Objectives Addressed:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral, and visual communication.
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
- Social Responsibility—to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

3. Trace the historical developments and cultural expressions of world religions.
4. Articulate key conceptual distinctions in world religions.
5. Communicate understanding of world religions, orally and in writing.
6. Communicate ways of living responsibly in a world where people have diverse religious beliefs.

VII. Grading of Course Work:

Exam 1	200	Grade Total:
Exam 2	200	A (Excellent):	900–1000
Exam 3	200	B (Good):	800–890
Final Exam	200*	C (Average):	700–790
Blackboard Reading Quizzes	200	D (Below Average):	600–690
Blackboard Discussion Boards	200	F (Failure):	0–590

*I will drop the lowest of the four exam grades.

VIII. Late Work:

Unless prior approval is received, late submission of assignments will result in a grade deduction of one half-letter grade (5%) for each calendar day (not including Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays) that the assignment is late.

IX. Attendance:

In this hybrid class, attendance will be assessed through assignment submissions and Blackboard logins. A login on our class's Blackboard website or a submission of an academic assignment (reading quiz, discussion board, etc.) will count as attending class for the week. Students may attend the class in person, but in-person attendance is not required.

Any student who fails to login to the class's Blackboard website or submit an assignment for three consecutive weeks will be dropped from the course with a grade of "X" if the student has a passing grade average at that time. If the student is failing, due to poor work or missing assignments, the student will be given a grade of "F."

X. In-Person Student Code of Conduct Policy:

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

If a student is exhibiting disruptive behavior (for example, talking loudly without permission), I will give him or her a warning. The second time this happens, I will tell the student to leave class, and the student will be counted absent for the day. I will also contact the dean. The dean will usually contact the student to schedule a time to discuss the cause of the disruptions. After this, if there is a third disruption, I will ask the student to leave class and drop the student from the course with a grade of "F."

XI. Plagiarism and Cheating:

Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant it.
