Policies and Procedures

Classroom Decorum

You are expected to conduct yourself in an appropriate manner. It is important to arrive to class on time and not disturb others by talking, using your cell phone, or leaving class early.

Furthermore, I expect every student to be respectful to other students and instructor when discussing politics. Failure to adhere to classroom decorum may result in a point deduction to your participation grade.

Participation Statement

For online courses, students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment by the official census date September 11. Students who do not do so, will be dropped from the course.

Course Withdrawals

The last day to withdraw from this class with a grade of 'W' is December 2. Students are expected to do the required reading and turn in assignments by the due dates. As stated, if you get behind in your assignments, it is likely you will not finish the course and/or fail.

Academic Integrity

Cheating, plagiarism, or any other act of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. At the bare minimum, a student who cheats or plagiarizes will receive a zero for the assignment. In addition, I reserve the right to seek additional penalties, such as a zero for the entire course and filing an Academic Dishonesty Report.

Student Grievance Procedure

A student grievance is a College related issue or condition that a student believes to be unfair, inequitable, discriminatory, or a hindrance to the educational process. A grievance also includes discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. You can find more information about the student grievance procedure here:

Final Grade Calculation

Exams	60%
Participation	20%
Quizzes	10%
Essay	10%

Exams (60%)

There are three exams, and your exam average comprises 60% of your overall grade. Furthermore, all three exams will consist of multiple-choice and short answer questions. For the first two exams, there is a late penalty if you miss the exam for an unexcused reason. If you miss Exam 3 (final exam), you will receive a zero. Finally, you are not allowed to take any exam early.

Participation (20%)

Active participation is crucial to your success in this class and, more broadly, to the success of any learning experience. There will be numerous opportunities throughout the semester to participate by engaging in class discussions and completing participation assignments. Moreover, I expect you to show up to class on time and be ready to participate. At the end of the semester, you will receive a participation grade based on the quality of your participation (e.g., participating in discussions, completing participation assignments, attendance, and adhering to classroom decorum).

I will track your attendance, and you will get a low participation grade if you do not regularly attend class. Furthermore, I reserve the right to deduct points from your participation grade for excessive unexcused absences, excessive tardiness, violations of classroom decorum (e.g., cell phone use, leaving class early for unexcused reason, wearing earbuds, rude other students or the instructor). If you have questions about your participation grade throughout the semester, you are welcome to ask me for feedback on how you are doing.

Essay (10%)

The required essay for this course is a letter to the editor. For this essay, you will write about a current issue in federal government and develop a persuasive argument. I will provide you with detailed instructions later in the semester.

Quizzes (10%)

I will assign at least 4 quizzes throughout the semester in Blackboard. Quiz format will vary and will be based on assigned readings.
